PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Okinawa Translator is the premiere translation and interpreter service located in Okinawa and mainland Japan. Our specialty is translating from English to Japanese and vice versa. Our fields of expertise range from military-related documents for the various installations/ports throughout Japan, to domestic legal documents such as marriage certificates and medical transcripts.

We specialize in translating documents for local residents including medical and legal transcripts, prescriptions and other medical data and information clients may require. For clients with medical issues we provide medical document translation along with on-site assistance at local Japanese hospitals or mutually agreed upon locations. Other domestic document translations can include marriage, divorce decrees, birth certificates, and family registries.
